2019 Editable Calendars

Have your students practice tracing and/or writing their numbers each month with these cute monthly calendars. This is a great way to reinforce patterning skills. You can fold a large piece of construction paper {9"x12"} in half and glue the calendar to the bottom half. Decorate the top half with a fun seasonal art project or hand print art!

2019 Editable Calendars

The following calendars are editable so you can include the numbers you want your students to trace as well as the numbers you want them to write on their own.

You MUST open this document in Adobe to edit it. If you are on a MAC, make sure you aren't opening it in preview. Directions on how to edit are on the following page. If you need help, please send me an email! info@misskindergarten.com

Please note: due to the clip art's TOU, only the numbers are editable in this document. You WILL NOT BE able to edit the months, year, or move the clip art pieces. You WILL BE able to redownload these calendars every year I update them so you can use them again and again!

How to Edit

You MUST open this document in Adobe to edit it.

Type in the numbers you need directly into the blue boxes.

Type // (two backslashes) if you just want the handwriting lines.

Delete any text in the blue boxes if you just want a blank box.

The blue boxes and/or little plus signs will disappear when you print.
